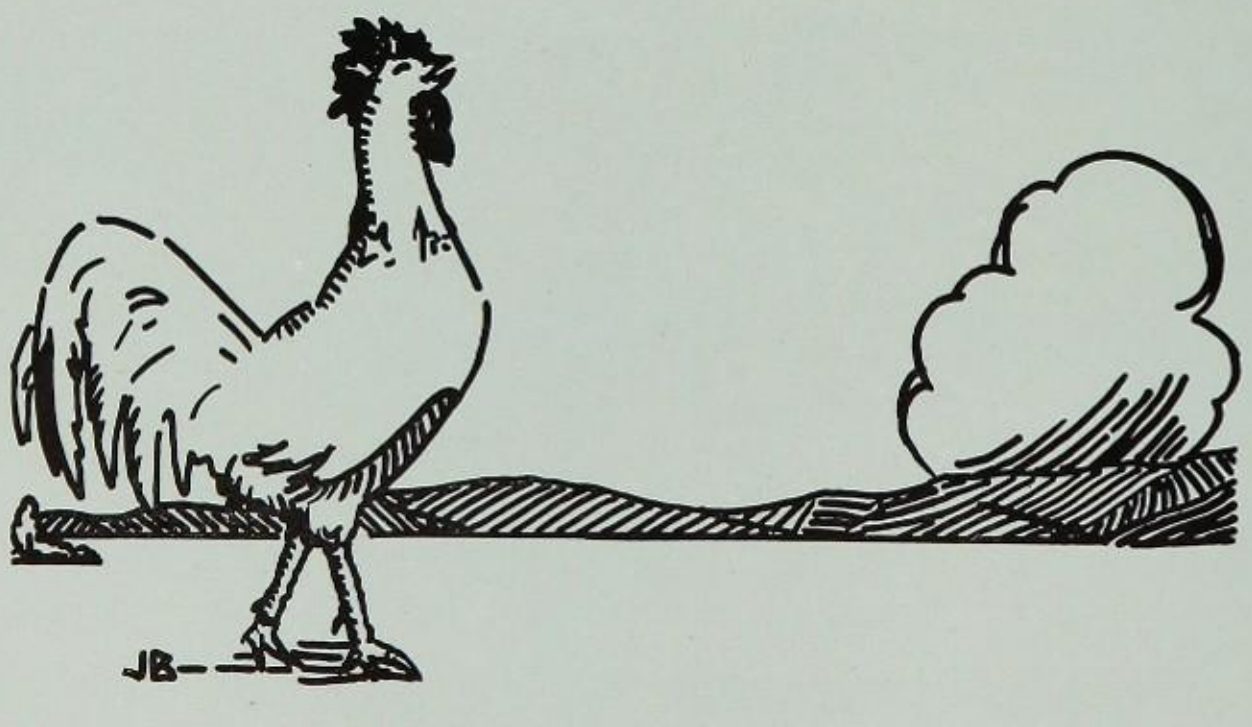
FOREWORD

With Petaluma's great industry as the theme of the 1930 Enterprise, we have tried to make this book as "chic" as possible. We have aimed also, by word and picture, to catch and to hold for you within the pages of this book the elusive memories of the past school year.



CONTENTS

I Administration.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Before God hung this world in space he must have had an idea of the whole process of creation and the evolution of life thereon. He must have had an idea of the advancement man would make on this globe. In just the same way, if we expect to do anything in this world we must first have an idea about it in order to make the proper plans for its fulfillment. Nothing in this world came by chance and nothing is accomplished unless the idea of the project is worked out before it is started. It therefore behooves students, if they would be successful in this world, to plan their lives accordingly.

BRUCE H. PAINTER.

VICE PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

"To thine own self be true
And it shall follow as night the day
Thou canst not then be false to any man."

This is the message that I bring to you this year: Be yourself and be true to yourself. The test, after all, of one's worth and the one essential for all successful endeavor, is sincerity. I covet for you that fearlessness which will enable you to stand alone, if need be, and that detachment from mob opinion which alone will give you true freedom.

SENIORS

JANUARY CLASS

President.....George Kemp
Vice-President.....Roy Curtis
Secretary.....Marie Carli
Social Secretary.....Dot Christie
Treasurer.....Douglas Blim
Adviser.....Miss Helen Hodghead

The first social event of the year was the Senior Take-off dance in which Low and High Seniors worked together in making the dance successful.

The Senior Prophecy as acted out in a clever skit written by George Wilson was a great success.

The Honor Society members were: Audrey Batchelor, Marie Carli, and George Kemp.

The Senior Week program:

Sunday, January 12—Baccalaureate service, Christian Church.
Tuesday, January 14—P. T. A. Banquet.
Wednesday, January 15—Senior Class Day.
Thursday, January 16—Girls' Club and Boys' League program.
Friday, January 17—Commencement.

JUNE CLASS

President.....Herold Mahoney
Vice-President.....Stoddard McFadden
Secretary.....Hazel White
Treasurer.....Chester Church
Social Secretary.....Alice Riebli
Adviser.....Miss Edith Howard

The first school event of the year was an "Aviation" dance given by the Seniors. The decorations were airplanes and zeppelins.

The Seniors gave the Christmas Graduating Class a party. Each one of the Christmas Seniors performed a stunt which amused those present.

The Senior assembly program was given February 24, in honor of Washington's and Lincoln's birthdays. Patriotic numbers were played by the Senior orchestra, directed by Van Marter Peck.

The next big event was the St. Patrick's dance given March 14, with decorations of shamrocks, pipes, and greens.

March 26-30 was suspender week and many of the Senior boys and girls wore suspenders.

The Seniors have been active in all school activities. Many of the boys have played on winning teams. Also many Seniors starred in school plays.

The class wishes to thank their adviser, Miss Edith Howard, for her assistance this past term.

The Commencement Week calendar is as follows:

Sunday, June 1—Baccalaureate service.
Monday, June 2—Senior picnic.
Tuesday, June 3—P. T. A. Banquet.
Wednesday, June 4—Class Day (tree planting).
Wednesday, June 4—Low Senior Party.
Thursday, June 5—Commencement.

As Sophomores we have made a good start in High School under the guidance of our class teacher, Miss Allen.

In November a party was given in the Library. Here we became better acquainted and developed class spirit, so that by the time our first dance was given the name "Sophomore" stood for a wide-awake class. Under the direction of Bobbie Stietz, our Christmas dance, a Night in Hawaii, was given. This was followed in February by a Pirate Dance, ably managed by Claire Barricks.

Our Girls' Quartette has been appreciated. We also provided a program for the Girls' Club and one for the Boys' League.

Our records in athletics and in scholarship show that we are making the right start in Petaluma High School.

The Futuristic Art Dance, which was the Junior Class' first social event of the year, was memorable for the decorations which were greatly admired. The dance was a great success.

As a Christmas program the Juniors presented the Seniors with comic gifts, much to their embarrassment.

In athletics the Juniors made a good showing. Not only have the Juniors been prominent in athletics, but they have made a name in scholarship as well. They have been represented in the Honor Society by Martha Lee Sales and Glen Winfrey, presidents; Emma McSween, vice-president; Edna Cader, secretary and treasurer, and Martha Lee Sales, social secretary.

The last event of the year was our Sport Dance, which was a marked success. We feel that our success in the past year was due in a great measure to our loyal adviser, Miss Korts.

LOW SENIORS

Wallace Glahn	Vice-President
Vivian Voris	Social Secretary
Marie Howell	Secretary-Treasurer
Miss Edith Howard	Adviser

The Low Seniors have acted with the High Seniors in all activities, but as a separate organization they undertook the decorating of the gymnasium for the June graduation and they gave a party for the graduating Seniors.

STUDENT BODY

The cabinet of 1929-30 was faced with a somewhat unusual situation this year in that the debt incurred by the athletic injuries had to be met. To accomplish this, contracts were made for a series of movies and other pay programs. Had it not been for the excellent manner in which the students cooperated in making these programs successful, we should not have been able to clear the debt. We are also grateful to the Alumni Association, not only for its cooperation in making the Alumni-High School Football Game, played on Thanksgiving day, such a huge success, but for sponsoring the Benefit Dance held in January. The Boys' League is also to be commended on its splendid benefit program. It is the suggestion of the cabinet that in the near future a permanent fund be established for the payment of athletic injuries.

Due to the many changes made since the publication of the first Student Body Handbook, the cabinet has undertaken its revision. A second edition of the handbook will soon be published.

Early in the year the ring and pin committee chose a splendid and most fitting design to be used as the standard school insignia. All who have obtained either a ring or pin have been delighted.

The Student Body was pleased to be the host at a luncheon and noon-day program given for the Rotarians.

The success that has been credited the Student Body this year has been due not only to the splendid leadership of the president, Ned Baker, and the cooperation and undivided support of the students in all activities, but to the inestimable aid of our faculty adviser, Miss Trueblood, to whom we all are grateful.

WELFARE COMMITTEE

Chairman ..... Oscar Martin
Judge ..... James Galbraith
Secretary ..... Dorothy Christie (Fall), Eleanor Dean (Spring)
Prosecuting Attorney ..... Martin Hutchinson
Clerk ..... Margaret Murray
Bailiff ..... Carl Berg
Members at Large ..... Lily Podvitz, Bob McAskill, Ruby Fees, Eleanor Jessen, and Bernhardt Lieder

At the beginning of the school year Oscar Martin, who is Chairman of the Welfare Committee, asked the above people to serve on the Welfare Committee.

A venire of nine from each class was elected at the class meetings to serve on the jury, but as yet they have not had a chance to render a decision. The usual procedure, however, is to bring the offense before the Welfare Committee by reporting it. If it is a slight offense, the committee recommends some demerits for the offending person to the Merit Committee. If, on the other hand, the offender thinks he doesn't deserve the demerits, a trial is arranged and the jury decides if he is guilty or not.

For our welfare work this year we took over the Lost and Found Department, each member serving for two weeks on it. We also took charge of the fire drills, making a schedule for them and introducing fire drills during Student Body meetings.

For our social times we had a theatre party last November. After the theatre we went to Eleanor Dean's home where refreshments were served.

As the school year draws to a close, the Student Welfare Committee realizes that it has had wonderful cooperation from a majority of the students. Our adviser, Mrs. Dadisman, helped us greatly.

It has been the purpose of the staff this year to make this Enterprise of 1930 a more perfect memory book; an annual which will serve in years to come as a constant reminder of the pleasures of high school days. In order to accomplish this a greater number of pictures has been used than ever before. With this volume, also, the Enterprise, for the first time, is bound in leather.

We have been guided in this work by Miss Jensen, our faculty adviser, whom we thank for holding before us a high standard of achievement. We appreciate, also, Mr. Day's assistance given to the business staff, and we are grateful to Miss Goodrich, under whose direction the artistic theme was developed.

The cooperation of many people has made this book possible. The staff is appreciative of all assistance given and wishes to acknowledge its indebtedness, especially to the following: The faculty and students, for graciously having "their pictures taken"; Ned Baker, for the faculty pictures and the snapshots; Marie Goettig, for much typewriting; Mr. Hatch of The California Art and Engraving Company, for helpful ideas; Weber-McCrea Company, for the covers; Mr. Keller of the Petaluma Printing Company, for the printing; Mr. Wheldon, of the Sunset Studio, for all the group pictures in the book, as well as for the Senior portraits.

THE BOOSTER CLUB

President .....Dot Beidleman
Secretary.....Eunice Ellsworth
Adviser.....Miss Ellin Trueblood

Keeping in mind that the purpose of Booster Club is to serve the school, the members, under the direction of Miss Trueblood, have given throughout the year whole-hearted support to all Student Body activities.

For example, the Club backed up the school athletic teams with enthusiastic rallies before games. Purple and white pom poms, which were sold, as well as rooters' caps, made our rooting section at basketball and football games not only the most colorful in the school's history but the peppiest.

At the conclusion of football season, November 26, a dinner was given the team, at which the girls of the club served. On February 24 the basketball teams were honored similarly with a turkey dinner.

Tickets were sold for the school play, "Captain Applejack," which was presented to a full house both nights, October 4 and 5.

Booster Club has cooperated with the Parent Teachers' Association on several occasions. Club members twice during the year solicited and collected most of the food for the P. T. A. food sales.

For the P. T. A. benefit program for the scholarship presented yearly to the school, the Booster Club sold tickets, and several of the girls acted as ushers.

At the annual auction held May 19, Bud Bridges and Junior Parent "hollered their heads off" to secure funds for the school treasury.

The members of the Booster Club, which are selected from each class, are as follows:

RALLIES

Cheer, boys, cheer! Cheer them to victory!
P. H. S. and her stalwart men,
Always ready to play the game,
Fighting for the honor of P. H. S. today;
Short and tall, one and all—Fight for Victory!

The school yell leaders, Cecil Clippinger and Howard Tomasi, have enthusiastically carried out the rally plans proposed by the rally committee directed by Dot Beidleman. Junior Parent led school singing and succeeded in getting the Sophomores to sing out. "Mac" again proved his loyalty and his interest in P. H. S. by writing the following school song, which cheered us on to victory.

PARENT
CLIPPINGER
TOMASI

FOOTBALL SONG

The football boys of P. H. S.
Are out to win the game;
No matter if they win or lose,
They're fighting just the same.
To kick or punt, receive or pass,
They're Trojans all the time;
So give our boys a big, big yell—
Help push them o'er the line.

GIRLS' CLUB

President.....Barbara Barry
Vice-President.....Alta Jensen
Secretary.....Alice Simeons
Secretary of Social Affairs.....Marie Howell
Secretary of G. A. A.....Violet Waite
Dean of Girls.....Miss Myrtle E. Brown

During this year the Girls' Club, under the direction of Miss Brown, has tried to carry out a high ideal of friendship. For that purpose, at the beginning of the fall semester the Big Sister Committee had a group of their little sisters (new girls in our school) as guests to supper every Tuesday evening until all the little sisters had been entertained. Warm fall evenings encouraged swimming parties and outdoor suppers; these also had the aim of spreading friendliness among Petaluma High School girls. As a climax to our friendly purpose, a Hallowe'en Jinx was given for all Girls' Club members, in the new library. There games, fortune-telling, dancing, and refreshments were enjoyed.

Every two weeks programs were given by the Club in the auditorium. A fashion show with eight models, a Bach-Schubert piano program by Professor Lippitt, dramatic readings by Mrs. Greene, plays by club members, interclass competitive programs, community singing, an Armistice joint meeting of Girls' Club and Boys' League with Dr. Tully Knowles speaking on "America First," special Christmas, May Day, and Mothers' Day programs; these are some of the enjoyable activities of our Club.

Charity work was done on a large scale at Thanksgiving and Christmas times. Fourteen boxes of food were delivered to needy people of our community at Thanksgiving time. Every girl contributed something, and a hearty joy in service was the compensation. A charity party, given by Senior members to needy little people at Christmas time, resulted in joy to the tiny folk and perhaps even greater happiness to the older girls. A Christmas tree, toys, and ice cream, cake, and candy were liberally donated to each child.

Numerous active committees deserve commendation for their work this year: Alta Jensen, vice-president, chairman of the Rest Room Committee, has done sincere and thorough work with the aid of her helpers. Marie Howell, chairman of the Good Cheer Committee, has faithfully sent cards and letters to sick girls. Violet Waite, chairman of Poster Committee and president of Girls Athletic Association, has been admirable in her executive ability. Alice Simeons, chairman of Hospitality, and secretary of Girls' Club, has been a constant joy in her willingness to serve.

THE BOYS' LEAGUE

President.....Clarence King
Secretary.....Marshall Hughes
Manager of Boys' Athletics.....Bob Blanchard
Adviser.....W. H. Van Dyke

A bigger and better year in the Boys' League! This has been our slogan and we feel that we have attained it through the cooperation of the League with its adviser, Mr. Van Dyke.

As has been the endeavor of the League since it was organized, we have tried to provide programs which would be interesting as well as educational. Some of our programs were: Rev. Noel Breed enumerated history of Pacific Coast territory; Mr. Tuwilliger, Red Cross expert, gave a life saving and first aid talk; Dr. Tully Knowles, president of the College of Pacific, spoke on "America First" at a joint meeting of the Girls' Club and the Boys' League; the Senior orchestra rendered excellent musical programs; Mr. H. W. Kerrigan spoke on "Use Your Feet"; a motion picture entitled "The Making of the Telephone" was shown through the courtesy of Mr. Brown; the Juniors gave a very entertaining program; a chalk talk by Louis Kaiser and John Gutermute. For our three remaining meetings we have arranged to have a program by the Sophomores and candidate speeches. At the last meeting the installation of officers will take place.

The Boys' League gave a football benefit program, which consisted of a motion picture, sleight of hand performance by Mr. Bruner, Senior orchestra, accordian solos by Mr. Baccalini, and selections by the Boys' Glee Club. It was a huge success.

Boys' League Aviation Contest? Yes! And it surely won the popular support of the boys. Mr. Fletcher has arranged to give the twelve winners of this contest an air ride over Petaluma and its vicinity. The awards will be based on the following merits: Scholarship, activities, merit record, attendance at Boys' League meetings, and answers to the questionaire on aviation.

A bonfire will be held at the High School this May, at which the boys will participate in athletic games, fights and also the refreshments.

We sincerely hope that Boys' League of the coming term will prove to be as successful as it has been in the past year.

Petaluma Chapter No. 55 of the California Scholarship Federation has not only increased in membership but has been very active in the past year, under the direction of Miss Schmitt.

To become a member of the State Honor Society a student must have received 10 grade points both quarters of a semester. Local members are those receiving 8 grade points during a quarter. An "A" counts as 3 points, a "B" as 1 point for full credit subjects.

Last year Petaluma was named head of District No. 15, which includes other schools of this section of the state. At the first convention of District No. 15 on December 7, Petaluma chapter was hostess to about 60 delegates. At this meeting a constitution was adopted. After the business meeting a short entertainment, round table discussions, and refreshments followed.

At the second convention on March 29, for which Sebastopol was hostess, we were one of the best represented chapters. After registering at Analy, the delegates motored to Griffith's Grove. Here a picnic luncheon was served by the Analy P. T. A. The program and meeting followed in the open air theater. We were fortunate to hear Miss Hazel Wohlhaupter, president of the Northern Region, C. S. F.

Some Honor Students have done coaching. A candy sale replenished our depleted treasury. On May 12 a student body program was presented, consisting of musical and dramatic numbers.

BIOLOGY CLUB

President .....Otto Rotthaus
Vice-President.....Irene Brizard
Secretary.....Ruth Formslag
Treasurer.....Elanson Douglas
Curator.....Glenn Winfrey
Reporter.....Henrietta George
Members-at-Large.....Robert McAskill, Helen Hawkins, John Larson, Norman Gill
Faculty Adviser.....Mrs. Norene Campbell

The Biology Club, under the direction of Mrs. Campbell, is just finishing one of the most successful years of its existence. Our membership has been much over the hundred mark, our meetings interesting and well attended, and our field trips most instructive, as well as pleasurable.

We have tried to fit our programs in with the course of study of the biology department, and the plan has proved a very happy one. Our speakers have included: A. O. Bremner, county horticulturist; Dr. Chuck, chemist at the Golden Eagle Milling Company; Martha L. Phillips, Garden Editor of the Sunset Magazine; Ansel Hall, Burbank's biographer; Dr. Hubbell, our health officer here in Petaluma, and Rodney Ellsworth of the California Fish and Game Commission has been with us twice this year—once showing an excellent three-reel picture of fish culture, and at another time giving us a picture and talk on "Conservation."

We have made three field trips—one to the Belding Company's Silk Mills; one through our famous "Must Hatch" Hatchery, and one all day trip to Tamalpais.

To lighten our more scientific aims and programs, we have had occasional initiations, competitive and musical programs so that "all work and no play would not make Jack a dull boy."

In all we have done we have tried to live up to the theme of our Biology Club song—

"When we're on our outings,
And when we're in our school,
We always try to do our best
And to observe the Golden Rule."

Top Row—Orr, Klebanoff, Pedeprade, Pedeprade, Casarotti, Schleth, Murphy, Wheeler, Casarotti, Sylva.

Third Row—O'Kiefe, Donaghue, McIntosh, Johnson, Gardner, Sipola, Holmes.

ORCHESTRA

The music department of the Petaluma High School has a talented Orchestra and Band. The members have devoted themselves to a thorough study of classical music. At all school occasions, such as operettas, plays and graduations, the Petaluma High School orchestra gives its service with a good will. The Grange was favored with several numbers at its winter meeting in Dania Hall. The trip to the state home at Eldridge and a chicken dinner is looked forward to by the members.

The Band has not been organized as long as the Orchestra. It was formed last year and Mr. Schieck has been kind enough to give his noon hour to practice. The Band has nineteen members.

Both the Band and Orchestra are greatly indebted to Mr. Schieck for his splendid instruction which has helped to make this year so successful.

ORCHESTRA

Violins—Glen Winfrey, Helen O'Kiefe, Russell Gardner, John Sipola, Rose Donaghue, Jean Douglas, and Alta Mae Holmes; String Bass—Ruth Maloff, Esther Lutz, and Wilma Rorden; Piano—Bruce Brumbaugh; Clarinet—Jake Klebanoff; Trombone—Ernest Pedeprade, Roy Casarotti; Baritone—Fred Schleth; Cornets—Robert Sylva, Alfred Pedeprade; Saxophone—Raymond Cannon; Drums—Virgil Johnson.

BAND

Top Row—George, Hawthorne, Hendersen, George, Rasmussen, Christie, Soldate, Wotherspoon, Armour, Howell, Jeffery.

MUSIC

During this year the music department has had ample opportunity to show off to advantage. Besides providing enjoyable entertainment for Rotary Club, P. T. A., Woman's Club, American Legion, school programs and churches, the students have gained valuable experience in singing before the public.

There are several subjects under the supervision of the music department, including normal training, girls' harmony, mixed chorus, and a choral society.

Besides the regular glee clubs there are two quartettes which deserve special mention, because they spend time outside of school practicing. The Sophomore Quartette consists of the following: Ruby Fees, Odny Spillum, Genevieve Jemtegaard, and Ruth Goettel. The Male Quartette contains Alden Drees, Glen Winfrey, Earl Singleton and Oliver Maack. The accompanist for the Boys' Quartette and Mixed Chorus is Bruce Brumbaugh. Thora Nisson accompanies the Girls' Quartette and Girls' Glee Club. The quartettes have won praise for their singing, not only at school, but at many programs for clubs and organizations outside of school.

The Choral Society, which meets once a week in the evening, studies very difficult music. At Christmas they gave a cantata; in May a music festival, and many other programs during the term.

Much credit is due the music teacher, Mrs. Rusk, who has given tirelessly of her time, effort, and knowledge to music students.

PURPLE MASK PLAYERS

President.....Norman Gill
Vice-President.....Bill Hawthorne
Secretary-Treas. .....Louise Johnstone
Adviser.....Miss Nicholson

This year, under the direction of Miss Margaret Nicholson, a dramatic club known as the Purple Mask was organized and has had a very successful year. There are about thirty members in some phase of dramatic work—acting, directing or electrical work. The aims of the club are to have every member of the club take part in at least one play, to have all plays entirely student produced, and to obtain money to improve the stage of our school.

The comedy "Grandma Pulls the String," the first play presented, was given twice to appreciative audiences, for Student Body and later for the Parent Teachers' Association. "The Travelers," a mystery play by Booth Tarkington, was presented very successfully March 28th on the P. T. A. Variety Program.

Other plays given were "Thursday Evening," a domestic comedy by Christopher Morley, given for the Grange April 24th, and "The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife," by Anatole France, presented to the Student Body on May 26th.

"CAPTAIN APPLEJACK"

The Student Body presented a very clever, as well as successful, dramatic production this school year, "Captain Applejack." The cast was selected and directed by Miss Margaret Nicholson, with the help of a student executive staff. Wonderful cooperation and interest was shown, and as a result the successful outcome was only natural. The play was shown Friday and Saturday evenings, October 4 and 5.

The cast was as follows: Ambrose Applejohn, a typical, but timid, young Englishman, Lloyd Bridges; Poppy Faire, the innocent young ward of Ambrose, Eleanor Hawthorne; Anna Valeska, a crook posing as a Russian dancer, Alta Jensen; Borolsky, a Russian spy in league with Anna, Stoddard McFadden; Mr. Pengard, a confidence man, in guise of a Hindu mystic, William Hawthorne; Mrs. Pengard, his wife, Louise Johnstone; John Jason, a young real estate agent, James Sweeney; a detective, Bob Conley; the maid, Doris Walls; Lush, a valet, John Gutermute; the conventional aunt of Ambrose, Jewel Johnson.

The executive staff, to whom much of the credit for the success of the play must go, included: George Wilson, student director; Doris Walls, property manager; Donald Burns and Ralph Harris, electricians; Himmie Klebanoff, stage manager. The settings of the Applejohn mansion and the pirate ship were executed by the art classes under the direction of Miss Goodrich.

E. Hawthorne, Bridges, Johnson.

LANGUAGE CLUBS

THE SPANISH CLUB

Presidents of the three sections during the year: Ilma Jacobs, Tim Mahoney, Carl Berg, Beatrice Yriberri.

Adviser.....Miss Eva Ruth Martin

The Spanish Club (Las Chispas), under the direction of Miss Martin, consisted this year of three separate groups which held their meetings every other Friday during regular class time. At the meetings Spanish only is spoken, a fine of five cents being imposed on anyone using English. Programs have consisted of Spanish music, plays, reports on Spanish speaking countries, and games played in Spanish. Twice during the year the members of the different organizations have met together socially. A Christmas party was held at the high school in December, Spanish songs and games providing the entertainment, and in the spring a picnic and hike were enjoyed.

THE FRENCH CLUB

Fall Semester		Spring Semester
Eleanor Dean	President	Constance Clark
Louise Johnstone	Secretary-Treasurer	Louise Johnstone
Emilie Chapius	Adviser	Emilie Chapius

The French Club, an organization of third year French students led by Miss Chapius, has for its purpose the stimulating of interest in French literature, language and customs, and putting to practical use the lessons learned in class. Meetings are held on the first Friday of every month. At these meetings the members enjoy programs which include at various times French plays, poems, and reports on French customs. During the Christmas holiday season a party was enjoyed by the members of the club.

THE GERMAN CLUB

Fall Semester		Spring Semester
Marie Howell	President	Marie Howell
Meta Jagla	Secretary-Treasurer	Meta Jagla
Miss Dorothea Schmitt	Adviser	Miss Dorothea Schmitt

The German Club (Der Deutscher Freundschaftsbund) was organized in 1925 for all students taking German. The purpose of the club is to foster interest in the German language, songs, and customs.

In October a Hallowe'en party was held to initiate the new German students. After the initiation, dancing, games, and refreshments were enjoyed. Miss Dorothea Schmitt is adviser to the club.

AGRICULTURE

In September several boys went to Camp Lillard and competed in the judging contest at the State Fair. Those teams entered were poultry, dairy products, livestock, and tree judging. The Aggies also had an exhibit in the Fair, which won third prize of twenty-five dollars.

During the last year the Aggies entered a pen of hens in the Egg Laying Contest which is conducted by the Farm Bureau. We won third place in the High School Division. Petaluma had the high hen of the contest, which was owned by John Kelly.

In November the judging team went to the Pacific Slope Dairy Show at Oakland. Our dairy cattle judging team placed fourth and was high team in Guernseys and won a beautiful cup. Clarence King was third high individual. The dairy products team placed seventh.

In December the livestock team went to Los Angeles to the judging contest held at the Los Angeles Union Stock Yard. The team took seventh out of eighty-one teams entered. There were only a few points separating our team from the winner.

In December Clarence King and Alvin King entered their baby beeves in the South San Francisco Christmas Baby Beef Show. Clarence's baby beef won fourth place and Alvin's was well up in the money. Clarence received $170.81 for his beef and Alvin sold his for $79.40.

On March 22 the poultry and farm mechanics teams went to Healdsburg to the semi-final judging contest. Both teams took second place in the contest, which entitled them to go to the State contest to be held May 3 at San Luis Obispo.

The members of the poultry team were: Arnold Scott, Paul Carr, Raymond Collins and C. Church (alternate). The farm mechanics team were: R. Tozer, C. Nielsen, E. Paulsen, and L. Cannon (alternate). The poultry team was coached by Mr. Van Dyke, the farm mechanics team by Mr. Reardon.

AGGIE PROJECTS

The following are a few of the projects carried on by Aggie students:

Carl Nielsen carried on a project of 2,300 chicks and made $541.45, making a labor income of $1.30 per hour.

Roland Braden carried on a similar project, making a net profit of $216.90 on 1,400 baby chicks.

Chester Church raised 1,100 baby chicks, for which his income was $103.84, making $.70 per hour.

Leslie Cannon raised two purebred Jersey bulls, making a profit of $110.77.

Raymond Cannon raised two Ayrshire calves and made $1.15 per hour, or a net profit of $202.35.

The financial report of the year 1928-29 on agricultural work is as follows:

Gross income $23,533.66.

Total expense $15,621.59.

Total net income $9,002.06.

A total of 9,225 hours was spent in project work. This makes a net income of $.97 for each hour the boys spent on their projects. This is a very good record and one of the best records turned in by any school in the State.

The estimated value of work turned out by the Farm Mechanics boys was $7,076.00.

A national organization of agricultural students has recently been formed, which is known as Future Farmers of America. Our department has received its charter and now has thirty-nine members. A great deal of interest is being shown in the organization. Clarence King is regional president of this district. Our officers are: Harry Knudtsen, president; Alvin King, vice-president; Albert Tresch, treasurer; Americo Bloom, treasurer.

NO-WHAT CLUB

Secretaries.....James Petersen, Ted Evans, Walter Fayle,
Henry Surhoff, Phillip Ruiz, John Larson
Adviser .....Mr. Hewitt

The No-What Club, composed of about 60 members, has existed in the Petaluma High School for the last four years. This club was originated by Mr. Hewitt and Leonard Wells. The purpose was to eliminate the answering of "what" to questions asked by Mr. Hewitt, and to give penalties for leaving tools out of their proper places. Every person who goes against rules is fined five cents. At the end of the term, with the money collected from the fines an ice cream feed is given.

The duty of the secretaries is to record each infringement of rules committed by the pupils in his class period. The money is collected from the offenders in good will because they can see in store for them a scoop of ice cream surrounded by a large piece of cake.

BLOCK "P" SOCIETY

The Block "P" Society is composed of those who have won major blocks in any sport. Gaining one of these is no easy matter, as an athlete must play at least a quarter in five winning league games. Points for different sports cannot be combined to obtain the award. Blocks may also be won in tennis and track by making five points.

If any player wins a block in three different sports, an "All Star Block P" is awarded. This is the highest award that anyone in Petaluma High School may win for athletics.

The members of the Block "P" Society, together with the sports in which they have won blocks, is as follows:

FOOTBALL

The football season opened with one of the largest squads ever to turn out in the history of the school. With almost a complete team of letter men available, we gave promise of being one of the best teams in the league.

Petaluma 25 St. Helen 0

On October 12th the St. Helena squad came to our field to be overwhelmingly defeated. Our team showed exceptional speed and power. The St. Helena squad offered little competition for our "fighting" Trojans. "Off with a flying start!"

Petaluma 7 Napa 6

This game was a hard fought battle throughout. Our boys lost some of the old fighting spirit when the captain, "Walt" Minogue, was carried from the field with a broken leg.

Petaluma 14 Tamalpais 0

Again we marched to victory to the tune of 14 to 0, coming back with the old P. H. S. fighting spirit. Our team showed exceptional strength against "Tam." Tamalpais was beaten by our speed and power attack. "Still going strong!"

Petaluma 0 Santa Rosa 12

Our fighting "Trojans" fought hard to crash the strong Santa Rosa offense, but it seemed that we just had an off day. This defeat lost us our chance to meet Vallejo for the league championship.

The spirit of the team remained high, due to the splendid support of the entire Student Body and their confidence in their coach, Captain Schuster.

FIRST TEAM.

BASKETBALL

CLASS A

Petaluma 28 Analy 26

The opener of the season this year was with Analy on their court. With both teams "pepped" up to win, this first league game proved sensational. But Analy, finally tiring by a slashing last minute attack, was defeated by the score of 28-26. "Pretty close."

Tamalpais 19 Petaluma 18

This contest, the most exciting game of the season, proved to be one of the fastest and cleanest games of the season. Both teams were so evenly matched that neither team held an edge. Our boys fought hard but lost their lead during the last seconds of the game.

Petaluma 33 Healdsburg 23

Our team, composed of many veterans, confused the Healdsburg five by our slashing attack. Shooting goals at our own will, the Healdsburg team showed little competition for our strong Trojan quintet.

Santa Rosa 36 Petaluma 28

This year we were hosts to Santa Rosa. Santa Rosa went into the game with one of the strongest teams in its school history. Our boys entered the game with a determination to win. This game was another thriller to the final second, when Santa Rosa came from behind to win.

CLASS B

Petaluma 16 Analy 15

A very close and exciting game, which was hard fought to the last second, ended in Petaluma's victory 16-15 over the Analy five.

Tamalpais 20 Petaluma 19

Dropping a heart-breaker to the champion Tamalpais quintet by the score of 20-19, our boys were defeated after playing one of the most thrilling games of the school's history.

Petaluma 20 Healdsburg 11

Getting back to their old form our boys put over another big victory by the score of 20-11, although Healdsburg fought hard.

Santa Rosa 16 Petaluma 14

With both teams keyed up to the limit for victory, the game ended in a Panther victory.

CLASS C

Petaluma 10 Analy 8

With no difficulty at all our boys romped over the Analy quintet to victory by the score of 10-8 in our first league encounter.

Petaluma 22 Healdsburg 14

The second league game with Healdsburg proved to be another "walk-over" for our strong quintet.

Petaluma 36 Tomales 4

Tomales did not prove much of an opponent for the strong Petaluma aggregation. Shooting goals at our own will, our boys put over a lop-side victory by the score of 36-4.

Petaluma 22 Santa Rosa 19

Filled with determination and that old "P. H. S." fighting spirit, the Petaluma "Trojans" met the strong Santa Rosa "Panthers" and defeated them on their own court, putting over a smashing victory.

Petaluma 18 Tamalpais 28

Fighting hard and as real players, our boys were defeated for the championship of the North Bay League.

Relay—Church, Begley, Weyler, Evans, Gill.

Class C—McIntosh and Kawaoka, 50 yards; McIntosh and Brand, 220 yards; Skich, Kawaoka, shot; Tom Moore, Thomas Moore, high jump; Tom Moore, Brand, broad jump. Relay—McIntosh, Brand, Kawaoka, Joseph.

TENNIS

The first six players chosen were: Thomas Conner, Cecil Clippinger, Ned Baker, Oscar Martin, James Sweeney and Martin Hutchinson.

Scores (fall): We won all events from Analy. To Santa Rosa we lost all the events. From Tamalpais we won the doubles and first singles, but lost the second singles. Spring: We won the singles and lost the doubles from Healdsburg, Analy and Santa Rosa. Conner and Martin were defeated by Wildinburger of Napa in the final play-off for the championship of the two sections.

The Girls' Athletic Association, one of the largest and most popular organizations in the Petaluma High School, was organized to cooperate with the department of Physical Education, to promote athletic and social activities and to foster the ideals of good sportsmanship and good fellowship.

Several awards were given this year to the students earning them. These awards, which were purchased this year, are made of heavy purple and white chenile, and are an improvement over our former ones.

G. A. A. SOCIAL EVENTS

November 15—Speedball supper, followed by a Bunco party in the gym.

January 15—Something new! A theatre party at the California Theatre, following the basketball season. Refreshments and hilarity later at Dooley's.

March 25—Kids' party topped off the hockey season.

May 17—Play day at Santa Rosa for all high schools of the county, with Petaluma well represented by a fast speedball team, as well as participants in tennis, baseball and volley ball.

May 29—Following the girls' big track meet, the annual picnic of the G. A. A. was held, at which all who attended had a wonderful time .

BASKETBALL

As basketball is the queen of girls' sports, many girls came out and excellent teams were assured. The first game played between the Seniors and Juniors ended with the score of 21-9, Seniors' favor. The second game, between the Juniors and Sophomores, was rather overwhelming for the Juniors, as the final score was 24-5 with the little Sophs on top. In the third and last game between the matched Senior and Sophomore teams, a hard battle was fought. The Seniors, however, defeated the small but swift Sophs to the tune of 19-15.

Seniors: Violet Waite, Esther Carlson, Helen Oeltjen, Corrine Hughes, Jeanne Sweeney (capt.), Ruth Iddings (substitute).

Juniors: Madelyn Nunes, Ruth Maloff, Helene Kenneally (capt.), Margaret Murray, Claire White, Edith Larson; Emma McSween, Nettie Barlas (substitutes).

Sophomores: Eleanor Jessen, Barbara Smith, Anna Iserman, Jean Reed, Edna Nissen, Claire Barricks (capt.), Aletha Pendleton (substitute).

This year's All Star team chosen by Miss Herrick was as follows: Violet Waite, Vera McDevitt, Esther Carlson, Jean Reed, Edna Nissen, Margaret Murray.

SPEEDBALL

In the first sport of the season, the Seniors and Juniors had one team and the Sophomores another.

Those composing the teams were: Seniors and Juniors—Nettie Barlas, Marion McNally, Margaret Murray (capt.), Madelyn Nunes, Claire White, Esther Carlson, Emma Catenacci, Vera McDevitt, Helen Oeltjen, Violet Waite. Substitutes—Emma McSween, Margaret Olsen, Corrine Hughes, Ruth Iddings. Sophomores—Claire Barricks, Edith Dane, Dorothy Goodrich, Anna Iserman, Eleanor Jessen, Edna Nissen (captain), Aletha Pendleton, Jean Reed, Barbara Smith, Alba Zuchetti, Elaine Sather. Substitutes—Evelyn Cuneo, Eugene Green, Jane Ross, Doris Walls.

TENNIS

Tennis was very popular this year among all the classes, and competition was running high. Following are the winning teams:

Seniors—1st singles, Violet Waite; 2nd singles, Elizabeth Engell; 1st doubles, Louise Johnstone and Frances Matson; 2nd doubles, Evelyn Lockwood and Vera McDevitt.

Juniors—1st singles, Emma McSween; 2nd singles, Helen Friedman; 1st doubles, Margaret Murray and Margaret McIntosh; 2nd doubles, Madelyn Nunes and Marian McNally.

Sophomores—1st singles, Pauline Closter; 2nd singles, Jean Reed; 1st doubles, Adele Allan and Ella Hedin; 2nd doubles, Claire Barricks and Eleanor Jessen.

HOCKEY

This year's hockey teams, the Purples and the Whites, were not class teams, as there were not enough girls for individual class teams. The one game played between them ended with the score: Purples 3, Whites 0.

Purples—Vera McDevitt, Esther Carlson, Violet Waite, Esther Sunde, Rose Donaghue, Margaret Murray, Ella Hedin, Emma McSween, Eleanor Jessen, Frances Matson, Jean Reed. Substitute, Dorothy Goodrich.

Whites—Ellen Closter, Marian McNally, Ruth Iddings, Helen Oeltjen, Elsie Rorden, Corrine Hughes, Pauline Closter, Adele Allen, Edna Nissen, Madelyn Nunes, Claire Barricks. Substitutes, Miriam Neal and Margaret Lynch.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Top Row—C. White, Nunes, Murray, Barlas, Miss Herrick, Kennealy, Maloff, McSween, Reed.
Second Row—E. Nissen, Smith, Barricks, Waite, McDevitt, Sweeney, Hughes, Iddings, Carlson, Oeltjen, Jessen.

'MID PLEASURES AND PALACES

By MARION McNALLY (Winner of Literary Block)

Just as the clock chimed the half hour note, Mrs. Rodgers took off her glasses and, after diligently wiping them with a small pink cloth, folded them up into a black box and put them in the machine drawer.

She was a small, neat looking woman about thirty-nine years of age. Her sweet face, somewhat etched with tiny lines of worry, was framed with soft, brown hair, slightly streaked with grey. She wore it parted in the middle and drawn smoothly down each side to form a small knot at the back of her head. Her bluish-grey eyes were large and full of sympathy and understanding. Everything about Mrs. Rodgers suggested neatness. She wore a clean, stiffly starched black and white checked house-dress and around her waist was tied a white apron. The latter was daintily trimmed in the same black and white material of the dress, clearly indicating that both the dress and the apron were results of her own efforts.

"Goodness me! Here it is half-past four and this hem not fixed yet. I certainly hope the dresses don't get any longer. I can't let this skirt down an inch more, unless I put a ruffle on it. I have to face it as it is."

She rose rather wearily from her chair and hung the object of her afternoon's occupation on a hook by the sewing machine. After shaking off her temporary fatigue, she walked briskly out into the kitchen.

"B-r-r! My, but these nights are getting cold! Never used to have to start a fire till after six, but seems like I'll have to start one right now, else freeze to death."

After peering into the box beside the stove, she uttered a knowing grunt and went to the door on the back porch, where she sent out a commanding cry.

"Bill-eeee! Billy, you haven't got your wood in yet. Hurry up."

Not a sound.

"Billy!"

"Whut?" came in a feeble protesting tone from the region behind the wood-shed. "What do ya want, maw?"

"Billy, this is the last time I am going to tell you not to say 'what' when I call you. Now come and get the wood in."

Presently from around the corner of the wood-shed dashed a small boy of about ten years of age.

"O. K. maw, I never will again. But say, ya know, me and the fellers are goin' to have the keenes' little club. An' ya know, I was thinking that maybe Pa would let us use the wood-shed to meet in when it starts to rain. An'—"

But Mother was busy peeling potatoes by the sink and Billy's enthusiastic ramblings were lost to her.

"Now. Is that there enuf, maw?" said Billy, indicating the partially filled wood-box. "I brought in ten sticks besides the kindlin'."

"Uh, huh," returned Mrs. Rodgers absently, without turning her head. She really was thinking of how she could fix that navy blue suit, now that it was in style again, tuck-in blouse and all.

Five-thirty brought Lucille from the office, bubbling over with news of the day.

"Hello, Mumsey."

"Hello, honey" responded her mother.

"Oh, mother dear, did you finish that hem? I wanted to wear it tomorrow. Jeanne had a new dress on—an awfully funny shade of blue—and it was almost four inches below her knee. She gives me a pain!"

"Lucille! You shouldn't talk that way."

"Well, she always goes to extremes. You didn't make mine too long, did you?"

"I didn't quite finish it, but I will after supper."

Soon Dad arrived, tired but happy. He settled himself in his special armchair and prepared to enjoy his paper. After reading for quite a while, a great fumbling and rustling of papers could be heard. The rattling was accompanied by muttered phrases.

"Martha, who's been mixing this paper up? Page three is missing. How many times must I tell people to leave this paper alone? I leave it all folded up in the morning, and when I get home—"

"Why, Herbert! I'm sure it's all there, because I haven't touched the paper all day," soothed Mother, who was accustomed to these almost nightly outbursts. "Never mind, anyhow, supper's ready."

At supper Lucille held full sway.

"Oh Mother! I got a ride home to-night."

"That's nice, dear. Billy, I wish you wouldn't use quite so much butter. It's not good for you."

"Just guess who with," resumed Lucille warmly.

"Why I haven't the slightest idea. Herbert, have some more spinach, dear."

In this manner, supper passed serenely.

After supper, Dad again returned to his chair; Billy sprawled on the floor and puzzled over his arithmetic problems; Lucille absorbed herself in a novel, and Mother busied herself with the hem.

Suddenly Mr. Rodgers roused himself and, looking at his watch, exclaimed:

"Time for that aviation talk by Major Coxwell, I told you about Martha, remember? At nine o'clock."

"Nine o'clock!" With a bound Lucille was out of her chair. "Why, then the Bull Fighters are on. Alice told me not to miss it. Ronald Skeecher sings on the program."

"Well now look here, Lucille. I've looked forward to this talk and—"

"But Dad, I just must hear Ronald sing just once. Then you can hear your old talk."

Snap, and the radio went on.

"XS. Broadcasting from the Bull Ring. Next you will hear Ronald Skeecher warbling 'Those Senoritas'."

"Oh, boy! Da-da-dada-da," sang Lucille.

"Oh, all right, I give up. I'm going to bed anyway. Hard day at the office today. G'night."

And Dad shuffled out of the room.

"Well, now that's finished. Here, Lucille," said Mother, handing the dress to her. "Come on, Billy, time for bed. Morning comes pretty soon you know."

"Thanks a lot, Mother," responded Lucille. "I believe I'll go upstairs and try it on. I guess I'll stay up there and go to bed too. Good night."

"I'm coming too, dear. My eyes are tired."

Snap went the radio.

Soon the house was in darkness and silence. Presently the latter was broken by the chiming of ten notes, which rang throughout the house, proclaiming the end of just another day.

A REVERIE

By BRUCE BRUMBAUGH

Old man Brown used to sit out on his front porch every night, smoking. He seemed to be dreaming, dreaming of times to come when he would go into another world. Or was he dreaming of the wonders of nature, of the beauties of flowers, of the allurement of the wood? As the clouds floated out of his pipe, he seemed to be building fairy dreams. Perhaps he was dreaming of the universe so wonderfully displayed every night, of other worlds of crystalline beauty unknown to us. Could he be dreaming of the sins of mankind or of the houses of elves under toadstools.

One beautiful moonlight evening as I was walking past his rustic cottage, I saw him there, sitting and smoking, with his dark eyes turned heavenward. I walked up the flower bordered path to the veranda and asked him:

"Mr. Brown, why do you sit there dreaming every night, blowing clouds of beautiful smoke out of your clover scented pipe? Are you dreaming of the wonders of nature, of the beauties of the fairy palaces in the underworld? Or perhaps are you building fairy palaces in the air? Or could it be that you are thinking of the wonders of the satellites of the universe? Are you indeed thinking of the past, annals of history, of the downfall of mankind, or are you thinking of the past history of all universal kindness in the fairy palaces of yore?"

Mr. Brown took his pipe out of his mouth and said, as his eyes seemed to float over the fields, "The only reason I'm sitting out here smokin' is because the old woman won't let me smoke in the house!"

LEARNING TO TYPEWRITE

By LUKE DEMPSEY

I've often heard the people say
  A guy must use his head,
But when it comes to typing
  You use your hands instead.

Now if you listen carefully
  To what I have to say,
I'll tell you what Miss Allen
  Told us the other day.

Put your feet flat on the floor
  In this great typing class,
And if you chew a piece of gum
  You'll lose your merits fast.

Keep your eyes upon the book,
  Keep yourself at ease,
And now I guess you're ready
  To start in on the keys.

Curl your fingers nice and round,
  I know you'll nearly choke
Before you get perfected
  The so-called tiger stroke.

Keep your wrists up off the desk,
  Never punch the keys;
Do not sit so stiffly,
  Make yourself at ease.

Never watch your fingers,
  If you do you're good as dead.
I've got no more to say to you,
  So, darn it, go ahead.

STUDY HALL

By JEAN REED

Oh, spring is here
  And, darn it all,
Here I am
  In a study hall.

In a study hall when I
  Should be away,
Chasing the butterflies
  And enjoying the day.

Boy, will I run
  When school is out?
I'll jump and squeal
  And play and shout.

I'll get away from here so fast
  People will ask
How long will that last?
  I wish 'twould last forever and all
I'd never go back to study hall.

THAT PHYSICS CLASS

By MARSHALL HUGHES

The physics class experiments
  Make everybody laugh.
I couldn't tell you all they do,
  I couldn't tell you half.

They took a little mouse
  That Perry had about,
They put him in a large bell jar
  And forced the air all out.

And then laughed to see the mouse
  Swell to enormous size;
Poor mouse, they treated him unfair,
  Now in the grave he lies.

They didn't kill him though, at once;
  He still could slowly creep,
So using ether liberally
  They made him go to sleep.

That little mouse did not wake up
  I guess he never will;
But these same boys in physics are Experimenting still.

CATTEREL

There are yellow cats and black cats,
  And tiger cats and grey,
But the best was my old orange cat
  That ran away last May.

There are old cats with lame legs,
  And young cats with fleas;
There are the pert and sprightly cats
  That dogs chase up the trees.

But while I write of all these cats,
  There's one thing more I'll say,
I can't forget my orange cat
  That ran away last May.

The G. A. A.
  Happy are they,
For they have health,
  The greatest of wealth.

Tennis, baseball,
  Hockey, football,
Races, speedball,
  Best basketball.

If you want life,
  Plenty of strife
And healthful play,
  Join G. A. A.

DUST

(With apologies to Carl Sandburg)

Over the chairs and on table legs,
  Over the piano keys and bookcases;
In the house and in the factory,
  I am the dust; I cover all.

On the roads I am three feet deep.
  People walk thru me and kick me up
    in clouds,
But when it rains my name is mud.

THAT'S BLUE MONDAY

When you wake up in the morning
  And your head don't feel just right;
When you know your mother's learning
  That you're going out at night—
    That's blue Monday!

When the teachers say you're lazy
  And your best friends call you dumb,
When the boys all say you're crazy,
  And your ma says you're a bum—
    That's blue Monday!

When you get fourteen demerits
  For getting in a scrap;
At the table they ask for carrots,
  And you spill them in your lap—
    That's blue Monday!

JOKES

Earl Egan: "Come to the Sophomore dance tonight with me?"

Wallace G.: "Thanks; is it formal, or will I have to wear a tie?"

Miss Daniels was told that the police were looking for a man with a monocle. "But surely it would be better," she said, "if they were to use a telescope."

Jim: "Are you a pretty good judge of horseflesh?"

Tim: "No, I've never eaten any."

Max Berger: "How would you get a horse out of a bathtub?"

Joey Friedman: "Pull the plug out, of course."

Holbert: "There's a man in England who owes me $50."

Rotthaus: "Can't you collect it?"

Holbert: "No, he won't come across."

Carl B.: "What are you scratching your head for?"

Charles B.: "I'm looking for an inspiration."

Carl: "Oh, so that's a new name for them!"

Bud Bridges (at basketball dinner): "Lay off the rice pudding, Parent, there was a wedding across the street yesterday."

'Ducko' Holman: "Who first introduced walking sticks?"

Bud B.: "I bite."

'Duck': "Eve, when she presented Adam with a little Cain.

Lives of football men remind us that
We too can push and shove,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the other's mug.

Junior Parent: "What is worse than raining cats and dogs?"

Larry White: "I dunno."

Jr.: "Hailing taxis."

Recently at a Senior dance a young student (no names) who had been sitting out several dances in a row was delighted to see Sunny Wilson approaching. He bowed: "May I have this?" Smilingly she arose and prepared for the dreamy waltz. "Ah, thank you," said Sunny, and picked up a Spanish shawl upon which the girl had been sitting, and walked off with it.

Caught red-handed in the act of sprinkling bread crumbs on the campus, Lieder, the Sophomore president, said he was doing it just for a lark.

Miss Theobald: "What is the shape of a kiss?"

Perry: "It's a-lip-tickle."

CACKLES

Expecting company, Biddy decided that it was time to depart, and this started her tour of sight-seeing.

Meandering eastwards 'ords the setting sun Biddy sped thru' the torrid rain and mists, her thots filled to oerflowing with the philosophy of nothing. Gradually the P.H.S. presented itself with a startling suddeness and our heroine was slowly precipitated into our immense Lilliputian structure.

Seeing a ray of light piercing the darkness, [those inside were trying to do the same thing] She made her way into the room where the pedagogue of chemistry held sway.

Oh, no, it won't break, it's pyrex.

Marie Howell: "Did Ilma marry her partner in that flying trapeze act?"
George Kemp: "No; she decided to drop him."

Miss Korts: "Perhaps you were a witness of the fall of Rome."
Carl Berger: "No, I didn't exactly see it, but I recollect hearing something drop."

Lament of a student who lives in the country: "If Victor Hugo never stood up in a crowded school bus, where did he get the idea for the Hunchback of Notre Dame?"

Ernest Wheale: "You'll pay me what I'm worth?"
Store Manager: "I'll do better than that; I'll give you a small salary to start with."

Elanson (a poor dancer): "It was kind of you to give me this dance."
Cleona (a good dancer): "This is a charity ball, isn't it?"

A cop is always a good friend to have in a pinch.

"This quarter's no good; it won't ring," Jack Hull told Luke. "Whaddya want for two bits—chimes?"

Edna: "Penny for your thoughts."
Earl: "Oh, so you're a gold-digger too?"

"Any part of the city for fifteen cents," yelled the taxi driver.

"You can't sting me again," retorted Jack Prior. "I bought the city hall yesterday, and they wouldn't give it to me."

Telephone Operator: "It costs seventy-five cents to call Bloomville."
Salesman: "Can you make a special rate for just listening? I want to call up my wife."

Reformer (to prostrated man): "And so this is the work of rum, is it?"
Prostrated Man: "No sir, this is the work of a banana skin, sir."

Captain Schuster: "What is your religion?"
Private Perry: "Militia, sir."
Capt. Schuster: "No, no; I said religion."
Private Perry: "Oh 'religion' sir, I beg your pardon. I'm a plumber."

Carl U.: "Are all teachers bookworms?"
Doris W.: "All but the geometry teachers."
Carl: "What are they?"
Doris: "Angle worms."

"What's your name?"
"Patrick Rosenblatt."
"What is the Patrick for?"
"Protection."

The World Is a School and We Are All Scholars!

Our business, that of furnishing homes, is a vocation in which constant study and vigilance is of the utmost importance—keeping pace with the trend of the day is one of the conditions upon which the continuous growth, and in fact the continuous existence, of an organization depends.

May we be of service to you in explaining today's trend toward "Ensemble Selling" and the importance of harmonious blendings of colors?
